WEDNESDAY, APRIL 1, 1857.

Revolving Murder.

We have another revolving murder to record this morning, which, if the details are truly given, is, in the extreme, a case of the most revolting nature. The victim was shot about 4 o'clock, yesterday afternoon, near the corner of Preston and Chestnut streets, by a man by the name of John Swinney, well known in the upper part of the city. The circumstances of the affair are as follows: Swinney and deceased have been rivals in their attentions to an abandoned woman of this city, by the name of Ragsdale.

Yesterday afternoon, when, in company with the woman, was seen coming down Madison street toward Preston, followed at some distance by Swinney. Looking behind him, Fenn saw Swinney's movements, and told him that if he persisted in following him that he would knock him down. Swinney did not heed the warning, however, but quickened his pace, and by the time Fenn and his companion reached Preston and Chestnut, Swinney was close behind them. Fenn again turned and remonstrated with him, but Swinney drew a revolver and fired twice, both charges taking effect in the breast of the deceased, who died almost instantly.

Fenn's body was conveyed to the Chestnut-street hospital, where an inquest was held, the jury returning a verdict in accordance with the above facts. The deceased was about twenty-two years of age; was a moulder in the foundry of Messrs. Wright & Bridgeford, and sustained the reputation of an honorable, hard-working, young man, so far as we can learn. Swinney, immediately after the fatal deed had been consummated, threw his pistol and a bowie-knife into the Hospital yard and started toward Walnut street. Mr. Snyder, a grocer in the neighborhood, and another gentleman who had witnessed the shooting, arrested him and handed him over to the police, and he was committed to prison. He will doubtless have a preliminary examination in Police Court this morning. The increase of crime in our city is truly alarming; and many who witnessed the foul murder in question, and others who were made acquainted with the circumstances, were highly exasperated, and were driven almost to the point of premature justice.

A VALUABLE WORK.—We are indebted to the publisher for a Dictionary of the German and English languages, with a synopsis of English words differently pronounced by different countries, to which is added a supplement, containing a history of the English language, explanation of the pronunciation, reading exercises, with the different pronunciations, a table of the irregular verbs, a glossary of "Americanisms" not contained in the work itself, etc., by J. C. Oelschlag, one of the best linguists of the age. The work is highly practical and desirable and indispensable to students. Mr. Bernhard Hund, corner of Market and Preston streets, is the agent for this city.

PROF. FOWLER'S LECTURE.—A large audience greeted Prof. Fowler upon his first appearance at Mozart Hall last evening, notwithstanding the disagreeable weather. We have never heard so much science and practical instruction embodied in one lecture, albeit the Doctor did not tell all he knew. If the advantages and real value of the information, as great lessons, were generally known, a half-dozen such halls as Mozart would not contain the eager students upon the Doctor's course. The lectures are all complete in themselves, and we can assure the public to attend this evening.

ARRESTED.—Mr. Wagonseller, the defaulting cashier of the New Castle Bank, was arrested at Philadelphia, on the 25th, and taken to Pittsburgh. By the way, this defaulter is a brother to the Wagonseller, who, elected to the Pennsylvania Legislature as a Democrat, voted for Cameron for United States Senator. Rogatory appears to run in the family.

LOUISVILLE AND SHELBYVILLE ACCOMMODATION STAGE LINE.—The office of this line will hereafter be kept at the Owen's Hotel, and the stage will leave this city for Shelbyville every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at 1 o'clock p. m., and returning will leave Shelbyville on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at 7 o'clock in the morning.

DRUNKENNESS.—There were four cases of drunkenness and disorderly conduct before the Police Court yesterday. John Jones (no John in no way connected with the ex-Judge) and Mary Trainor were sent to the work-house a month, and John Mack and Pat Foley were held to bail in $300 for their good behavior two months.

OBITUARY.—The remains of the late lamented consort of Rev. A. H. Redford, will be interred in Cave Hill Cemetery, at 11 o'clock to-day. The friends of the deceased and the family of the deceased, are invited to meet the remains at the Cemetery, at that hour.

TURNER'S GINGER WINE.—Messrs. W. H. Moore & Co., at R. Vaughan's old stand, Third between Market and Jefferson streets, are sole agents for this specific for dyspepsia. The taste is very agreeable, and its virtues are, no doubt, very great.

The Postmaster at Ellington, Illinois, and a mail carrier in the same neighborhood, have been arrested for robbing the mails. They both had sustained good characters. The Postmaster was also an editor and a man of intelligence.

Pat Roland, who was arrested some time ago for a petty larceny, but whose examination was deferred owing to an attack of small-pox, was sent to the work-house yesterday by Judge Johnston, to await a legal requisition.

The Danville (Ind.) Bulletin says that Mr. Ephraim Hartcock, of Hendricks county, was killed by lightning during a storm which passed over that section, on Monday of last week.

PEACE WARRANT.—Edward and William Blue were up on a peace warrant in Police Court, yesterday, on complaint of John H. Wells. The trial of the charges was continued.

The steamer Greek Slave has been purchased in St. Louis, by Capt. G. W. Goodall and brother, for $6,000. She will run hereafter in the Illinois river trade.

The work on the extensive new foundry of Wallace, Lithgow & Co., at the corner of Clay and Main streets, is progressing rapidly.

We are indebted to the messengers of the Adams Express Company for papers from various points in advance of the mails.

The river is falling at this point, with sufficient water, however, for the smaller class boats to pass over the Falls.

Personal.

The death of Mr. Buchanan's nephew is set down in some of the papers as having been caused by the National Hotel sickness. The Lancaster Island Daily, however, says that he died of inflammation of the bowels, resulting from a cold caught while planting trees at Wheeland. His name was Elliott Eskridge Lane.

It is said that Longfellow is engaged in writing a five-act play.

James P. Arnold, of this city, has been granted a patent for improvement in cordage machines.

Frederick P. Stanton has accepted the office of Secretary of State of Kansas.

Col. William Preston and Hon. John J. Crittenden, of this State, were in St. Louis on Saturday last. The former gentleman has been there for some time on professional business.

J. G. Vaughan, the senior editor of the Chicago Tribune, retires from that paper to resume the practice of law.

Gov. Willard, of Indiana, has made the following State appointments recently: Directors of Terre Haute Prison, Grafton T. Cookerly, and James H. Ransom; W. Akin, of Bloomington, and Franklin P. Randall, of Fort Wayne.

Anderson, the tragedian, and his companion, Miss Elsworth, appeared at the National Theatre, in Cincinnati, on Monday evening.

A. P. Grover, Esq., has been recommended by a popular Convention, of Owen, as a candidate for the Senate in the Twenty-third District, subject to the action of a District Convention, composed of the counties of Grant, Owen, and Pendleton.

Our young friend McIntosh, of the Hickman Argus, is among the distinguished guests at the Neal House.

There was a good, but not by any means a full house present last night. The curiosity of the people, which alone crowded the house Monday, seems to have been satisfied on seeing the Mlle. Lola. The play as presented last night possesses in itself considerable interest, and is very well put upon the stage—some of the scenes being very cleverly handled. It would be unjust to judge of her talent as an actress by the one piece she has produced, and we must wait till we see her perform some other character before we pass a decided opinion. To-night she will appear in two pieces.

THE STEAMER WHITE BUFF SUNK.—The Cincinnati Commercial, of yesterday, contains the following dispatch:

The H. D. Newcomb reports that the tow-boat Geo. Albee ran into and sunk the steamer White Buff, at the mouth of the Ohio. The White Buff was bound from Cincinnati for Arkansas river, with a valuable cargo of iron, whisky, furniture, &c. She is owned at Little Rock.

THE EVANSVILLE JOURNAL says that the Henderson and Nashville railroad will not sacrifice more than $8,000 or $10,000 in recovering their bonds, which they supposed, at one time, had been misappropriated by their agent in London. Their escape from a heavy loss and much perplexity has been most fortunate.

CORPSE DISCOVERED.—We learn that the body of a negro man was found in Blue river, at White's Mill, about three miles from Salem, Ind., on Sunday last. The remains had evidently been in the water several weeks, and are supposed to be those of a fugitive slave, who ran away from Kentucky in January last.

FELON ARRESTED.—A man by the name of Jack Jones was arrested yesterday, by the Portland police, upon the recognition of one who identified him as the murderer of a police man in Columbus, O., about a year ago. Jones was committed to jail, to await a requisition from the Governor of Ohio.

FIRE.—The dwelling house and kitchen at the Toll Gate on the Shelbyville and Louisville turnpike, about two and a half miles west of Shelbyville, was destroyed by fire on last Sabbath forenoon. It was occupied by Mr. Jos. C. Archer, who saved the principal part of his furniture.

WE clip the following from an Eastern paper, merely to exhibit the disgusting depths to which some people will descend to make a pun:

You bought these stockings in Wales, didn't you? Why so? Because they seem well-chosen (Welsh) ones.

As Thalberg and his great troupe are soon to be in Louisville, it is suggested that our friend Eskridge should make certain amendments and improvements in Mozart Hall, conducive to the comfort of the audience, and the gratification of the artists.

The freight trains and the afternoon passenger train over the L. & F. Railroad, with their heavy locomotives, passed over the new bridge at Frankfort yesterday for the first time. The new structure seems to give the most perfect satisfaction.

THE STEAMER NORTHERNER.—The fine steamer Northerner arrived from Memphis yesterday afternoon. We are indebted to their popular clerk, J. B. Archer, Esq., for papers and other favors.

E. C. Glasgow, a young man, fell from the bridge at Nashville, Tenn., a distance of one hundred and forty feet, on Friday night last, and was instantly killed.

A Kentucky man, while crossing the Ohio on the ferry-boat, at Cincinnati, on Monday, dropped his pocket-book, containing $350 in gold, into the river.

Frederick Krapp, a native of Bavaria, committed suicide in Cincinnati on Monday afternoon. He was supposed to be insane.

CONCERTINA.—Mr. C. J. Kent offers for sale next Monday the finest concertina ever brought to this city. Go and see it.

We had a slight fall of rain yesterday afternoon and last evening, with indications of continued falling weather.

Spring and Summer Fancy Dry Goods.

We would respectfully invite the attention of ladies to the large and attractive stock of fancy and staple dry goods, at the store of G. B. Tabb, corner of Fourth and Market streets. At this house can be found a large and splendid assortment of every description of spring and summer goods, which, in point of style and elegance, cannot be excelled by that of any other West-cru house. They have a large stock of fancy Dress Silks; Silk Robes; Grenadine, Barege, and Organdy Robes; Embroideries; Lace Goods; Silk and Lace Mantillas; Parasols; Cateenies; Victoria Stripes; white and colored figured (new) Oriental Laces; Jacquets and Laces; together with a large stock of Cottons; Plain Cottons, Onions, Linens, &c.

ALL FOR ONE DOLLAR—Great Inducement at 96 Third Street.—Now is the time to get fine gold watches, jewelry, and extra fine books, pocket knives, cabs, and work-boxes cheap. No small gifts. Every purchaser of $1's worth of liniment receives a free gift, worth from 50 cents to $1.00. Everybody is invited to call and examine the gifts, which are new and desirable. No money is risked on chance, as every person is sure to get the worth of their money besides the liniment, which is alone worth the admission. One hundred thousand bottles have been sold since the first of January, 1857, and has given universal satisfaction in all diseases for which it is recommended. Remember, four bottles of liniment and a handsome gift for $1, at No. 96 Third street, near the post-office.
